DGS Training Branch Circular No. 19 of 2020 dated 18th May 2020

9. The Maritime Training Institutes (MTIs) conducting long duration pre-sea courses and Competency courses for the Nautical and Engineering Discipline are hereby permitted to conduct the Theory/Lecture part of the curriculum of these courses through Virtual classes/Live video sessions subject to compliance with the following conditions:

The approval for conducting maritime courses using Virtual Classes / Live Video sessions (VC / LVS) is granted only to the Maritime Training Institutes (MTI) already approved by the Directorate and only for the Theory / Lecture part of the curriculum. The Virtual classes can be conducted only for the courses intake capacity and the batch frequency already approved. These classes will first cover the batches whose training have got disrupted mid-way due to the suspension of classes.

As and when the situation improves, the candidates will have to attend the remaining part of the course as applicable at the DGS approved Maritime Training Institute, where they have enrolled and from the MTI which has uploaded their batch details on the E-Governance system of the DGS. Any training imparted to other unauthorized students shall not be counted for any purpose whatsoever.
